

WBGU 88.1 FM BG, Ohio

Words not to say:

Fuck
Shit
Tits
Piss
Locksucker
Mother fucker
Cunt

Based on George Carlin's peice

FCC: Federal Communications Commission
The governing body that regulates and issues licenses for all broadcasting.

Station License

Application for renewal made every 7 years by BG&U lawyers.

5 steps to revoke a license

Disciplinary Process

- 1) Warning letter placed on file
- 2) Cease and desist order issued
- 3) Fine levied against station
- 4) Short term renewal
- 5) Station license revoked

Non Commercial 1st Amendment laws

- You may not editorialize in support or against a political candidate.
- No Obscenity, Profanity, or Indecency

Obscene - Sexually Arousing, sex, lacks artistic, political, or scientific value.

Indecent - restroom, sex organs

History: Used to be called WRSN

1947 - 1st time on air basketball game NY vs PA over phone

1948 - Jan 14 600Hz 3hrs a day

1950 - WRSN moves below main auditorium

1951 FCC permits 10 watts 88.1 WBGU

1959 South Hall 350 watts

1975 Students take over

Today WBGU from 120 watts in West Hall 1,000 watts
Light on Top of administration

Station Policy and Procedure

Different

non profit

no advertising

Underground

good music

breaking bonds

bands w/out much exposure

Logs: Traffic log: Programming when to play what Programming: used for station purposes as a sign CD Log: what's missing
Public File: on top of EBS all station info License etc.

EBS

Record on bottom of log

a) received by WLQR

b) Put down full name - record hr./min/sec. Date

c) Push reset button

d) Engineer Jim Davis will come down

Weather Box:

Log comments & time

When siren goes off, push long button

Broadcast message